

Application for import and use of animal by-products for diagnostic, educational or research purposes

This application form must be used to apply for permission for import and use of animal by-products. The form must be completely filled in and sent to the Norwegian Food Safety Authority local department in region responsible for controlling the applicant/firm, at least 21 days prior to the export date of the product.

Part I Information about the applicant:		Int. ref. nr.
1. Name og postal address of the applicant/ firm:
Full name and title:
Address, postal code, place:
Telephone:	E-mail:
Part II Information about the animal by-product and the consignor:
Further description of the product:
Animal species:	Type of product:	By-product category (I/II/III):
		Treatment/conservation:
The origin of the product (mark the correct alternative):
Farm / agriculture <input type="checkbox"/> Laboratory <input type="checkbox"/> Wild caught <input type="checkbox"/> Slaughterhouse <input type="checkbox"/> Firm <input type="checkbox"/> Other <input type="checkbox"/>
Further specification:
Quantity (netto weight):	Number of packages	Type of packing
If the products come from a slaughterhouse/ firm; are they approved for export to EEA/EU? If so, state the EU approval number. If not, is the firm approved after national legislation in the export country?
Further information:
Temperature of the product (mark the correct alternative):      No temperature requirements <input type="checkbox"/> Chilled <input type="checkbox"/> Frozen <input type="checkbox"/>
Country of origin	ISO Code	Region in the country of origin (if relevant)
Place of dispatch:	Estimated date (time) of arrival:
Transport:    Aeroplane: <input type="checkbox"/> Ship: <input type="checkbox"/> Road vehicle:      Other:	Border Inspection Post of entry for products of third country origin:
Identification/AWB-nr:
Part III Intended use of the animal by-product:
Detailed description of intended use:		Duration of the project:

Part IV Treatment of waste material after use

Incineration in approved establishment:	Sterilization by pressure	Other destruction procedure approved by Norwegian Food Safety Authority <sup>1</sup>	Keeping for reference use
---	---------------------------	--	---------------------------

Name and address of the firm where the rest-product and eventually the packing material will be destructed after use:

Part V Applicants declaration

- I apply for permission to import and/ or use (delete as appropriate) the above mentioned animal by-product in accordance with relevant Norwegian legislation:

Regulation 27.10. 2007 no. 1254 concerning animal by-products for non consumption.
Regulation 18.10.1999 no. 1163 concerning inspection and control of import and transit of food and products of animal origin etc. from third countries.
- To the best of my knowledge, I declare that the information above is correct and complete.
- I agree, if a permission is given, to fulfil the obligations set out in this permission, as mention in Part VI. This includes to store relevant documents in two years and present them, if asked, to the competent authority.
- I will see to that the animal by-product under no circumstance will be used for human consumption or enter the food chain by feeding of animals.

Place: _____ Date: _____ Signature: _____

Title: _____

Part VI General conditions for permission to import and/or use animal by-products

- 1 It is forbidden to use animal by-product for other purposes than stated in the permission from the Norwegian Food Safety Authority.
- 2 Consignment from third countries must be transported directly from the Veterinary Border Inspection Post to the user.
- 3 The consignment must be accompanied by a trade document<sup>1</sup> issued by the consignor with the following information:
  - Description of the material and animal art of origin
  - By-product category
  - Quantity
  - Place of origin and place of dispatch of the by-product
  - Consignors name and address.
  - Consignee and / or users name and address
  - Reference-number in the permission from the Norwegian Food Safety Authority
- 4 The user must take all necessary precautions to prohibit dispersion of contagious diseases to humans and animals by acting in compliance with good laboratory practice.
- 5 Unless kept for reference use, the rest- material and eventually other products of the material, must be destroyed or returned to the country of origin. Alternatively one can apply for permission to use another method of destruction<sup>2</sup>.
- 6 The user must take notes of the receptions and use of the material. This register must contain information given under point 3 including date and method used to destroy the rest- material and eventually products of this.
- 7 The consignment must be marked "For research and diagnostic purposes" when transported.

<sup>1</sup> See template in Commission Regulation 142/2011, annex VIII, chapter III commercial documents and health certificates.

<sup>2</sup> Please note it is only permitted in EU according to the description in; Commission Regulation 142/2011; Annex XIV, chapter III, section I- research and diagnostic samples, point (c). This byproduct-legislation is not yet implemented in Norway.

Part VII Decision regarding use of animal by-products for education, research og diagnostic purposes

Pursuant to Regulation 27.10.2007 nr. 1254 about animal by-product for non human consumption, the Norwegian Food Safety Authority, Local Department _____, gives / rejects permission to use the animal by-products described in Part II for purposes as described in Part III.

The permission for usage is given for the projects duration as stated in Part III or (delete as appropriate)
Permission to use is valid until date:

This decision can be appealed due to Act 10.2.1967 no. 00 Public Administration Act, § 28. The appeal must be delivered to the Norwegian Food Safety Authority within 3 weeks after the decision is received. The appeal must be sent to the District Office.

The basis of partial permission and conditions of permission or rejection:

Date:

Signature and stamp

Place:

Part VIII Decision regarding import of animal by-products for for education, research og diagnostic purposes

Pursuant to provisions of Regulation 18.10.1999 no. 1163 about inspection and control of import og transit etc. of animal articles of food and products of animal origin etc. from third countries,

The Norwegian Food Safety Authority – Border Inspection Post of Oslo Airport Gardermoen, grant / rejects permission to import the animal by-products described in Part II for use as described in Part III.

Import permission is given on background of the permission from the local District Office, but can be re-evaluated, or withdrawn, if the animal health situation in the third country changes.

This decision may be appealed according to Act 10.2.1967 no. 00 Public Administration Act, § 28.
The appeal must be sent to the Norwegian Food Safety Authority within 3 weeks after the decision is received. The appeal must be sent to the above mentioned Border Inspection Post.

The basis of partial permission and conditions of permission or rejection:

Date:

Signature and stamp

Place: