

Conditions for importing pets – general

The animal-health conditions for bringing pets into Norway are set out in Regulations no. 542 of 19 May 2016 concerning the non-commercial movement of pets \(the Pet Regulations\). For importing more than three animals, the conditions in Regulations no. 464 of 20 February 2004 concerning animal-health conditions for the import and export of live animals, semen, ova and embryos \(the Trade in Animals Regulations\) must be fulfilled. Regulations concerning special protective measures may also be issued.

Conditions for importing pets from the EEA

The following conditions for the importation of pets from the EEA are considered not to have been fulfilled on arrival (check as appropriate):

Preferred outcome of the owner/person responsible

The following alternative is preferred (check as appropriate):

Pet(s) returned to the country or territory of origin.
Pet(s) held/isolated until the import conditions are fulfilled.
Pet(s) euthanized.

Declaration concerning cost coverage

When animal-health conditions for the non-commercial movement of pets into Norway from another country or Svalbard are not fulfilled on arrival, the owner/person responsible for the animals is liable for the costs thereby incurred⁽¹⁾.

The owner/person responsible for the animal(s) confirms by signing the document that the information concerning which actions the Norwegian Food Safety Authority may undertake has been received and understood. The signature also serves as documentation of statements about the matter by the owner/person responsible for the animal(s) and confirmation that the owner/person responsible for the animal(s) accepts liability for covering costs incurred in connection with implementation of relevant measures.

Information concerning further procedures

The Norwegian Food Safety Authority will determine which actions to undertake. The decision will be made in accordance with the Pet Regulations, Section 11; see Regulation (EU) no. 576/2013, Article 35. If possible, the Norwegian Food Safety Authority shall take account of the wishes of the owner/person responsible for the animal(s).

Depending on the situation, the decision will be made by the regional Norwegian Food Safety Authority or by the Norwegian Food Safety Authority's emergency response officers (if required outside of working hours).
